SEGV'S RECOMMENDATION –

1. You can also visit the Royal Yacht Britannia, which was launched in 1953 and was the Royal Family's floating residence for 44 years. It is now the most famous ship in the world. You can explore all five decks, the royal apartments (with the queen's surprisingly small single bed), crew's quarters and engine room in the tour.
2. Palace of Holyrood, the Queen and Royal Family's official residence in Scotland and Royal Family's official residence in Scotland. During your visit to Holyrood Palace, you'll be able to get a glimpse of what the life of Royal Family looks like.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Explore the most famous Edinburgh castle
- Get a glimpse of the life of Royal Family at the Palace of Holyrood
- Visit the Royal Family's floating residence – Royal Yacht Britannia [OPTIONAL]

DAY 06: TRANSFER TO INVERNESS

After breakfast check out and transfer to the station to board a train for Inverness.

Arrive Inverness and check-in at hotel. Inverness is located where the Moray Firth and the River Ness converge on Scotland's northeast coast. The Scottish Highlands' main city also serves as their cultural epicentre. The majority of the 18th-century Old High Church, the 19th-century Inverness Cathedral, and an indoor Victorian Market with food, clothing, and crafts may all be found in the city's Old Town. Today's Inverness Museum and Art Gallery explores Highland and local history.

DAY 07: LOCH NESS AND URQUHART CASTLE TOUR FROM INVERNESS

After breakfast at hotel, we will leave for a full day excursion.

We first visit the Culloden Battlefield at Culloden Moor, which is best known for the 1746 battlefield. We experience the powerful emotions and energies of the final Jacobite Rising – the last pitched battle between the Jacobites and British government to be fought on British soil.

We then leave for Loch Ness, home of the Loch Ness Monster and other Scottish myths, legends and historical happenings. Look out for 'Nessie' the monster in the 3 hours' boat ride. After an hour, we will arrive at the ruins of Urquhart Castle. Situated on the shore of Loch Ness with 1,000 years of history and some dramatic chapters Urquhart Castle (pronounced as er-ch-ert) was once one of Scotland's largest castles, which has seen great conflict during its 500 years as a medieval fortress.

After returning to the town, the day is free for leisure.

Overnight stay at the hotel in Inverness.

SEGV's Recommendation – There are many places one can visit upon return to town such as the Inverness castle, cathedral and Inverness Botanical garden, or explore Victorian Market (closes at 6.30 pm). The Victorian Market is a covered market in the heart of the City of Inverness, where one can shop, eat and enjoy at Victorian style building.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Experience the last pitched battle fought on British soil at Culloden Battlefield
- Enjoy the Boat trip on Loch Ness to Urquhart Castle

DAY 08: EXCURSION TO ISLE OF SKYE

In the morning, we leave for Isle of Skye tour early in the morning.

Along with Edinburgh and Loch Ness, Isle of Skye is one of Scotland's top-three tourist destinations. If there's one thing about Skye that'll leave a lasting impression, it's the scenery. It is not only known for its rocky landscape, but also for the picturesque fishing villages and medieval castles.

On the way, we stop at Eilean Donan Castle, and those who are interested can visit the castle as this is an optional tour. This 12th century castle is arguably the most romantic, and the most photographed Scottish castle ever. Scenes from Kuch Kuch Hota Hai, James Bond (The World Is Not Enough), Made of Honor movies were also shot at this castle.

Next, we stop at Portree, capita of Skye for lunch. Portree is a 200 years old fishing village and the main town on the Isle of Skye. It has a pretty harbour, where you can hear the hustle and bustle of the port and has great views of the surrounding hills.

We visit Old Man of Storr, one of Scotland's most iconic places. The 'Old Man', created by a massive ancient landside, is a large pinnacle of rock that stands 50 m high and can be seen for miles around. Climb up the hill and soak the beauty of this place. Though it is a slightly strenuous climb up to the Old Man of Storr, but anyone of average fitness should do okay. We will reach Inverness by late evening.

Overnight stay at the hotel in Inverness.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Enjoy a day trip exploring Isle of Skye
- Optional visit to Eilean Donan Castle, one of Scotland's most photographed castles
- Stop over at Portree for lunch
- Hike to old Man of Storr

DAY 09: TRANSFER TO BELFAST BY FLIGHT

After breakfast, check out and transfer to the airport to catch a flight to Belfast. Upon arrival, proceed to the hotel and check-in.

The capital of Northern Ireland is Belfast. The RMS Titanic was born there and famously sank in 1912 after colliding with an iceberg. The Titanic Belfast, an aluminium-clad museum resembling a ship's hull, as well as the shipbuilder Harland & Wolff's Drawing Offices and the Titanic Slipways, which today hold outdoor concerts, are just a few of the places in the refurbished dockyards where this heritage is remembered.

This day is free for your leisure. You can explore the city on your own.
