Kuala Lumpur is the capital of Malaysia and its largest financial centre. What began as a small Tin-Mining village with primarily Chinese immigrants employed by the British is today a global city with gleaming sky scrapers, mega-sized shopping malls, and bustling street markets. Kuala Lumpur roughly translates to "Muddy Confluence", a name the city gets due to its location at the confluence of rivers - Gombak and Klang.

After resting at the hotel, we will venture out for a sight seeing tour of the city. We shall begin the tour with a visit to the National Mosque. The huge mosque with a seating capacity of over 15,000 people comprises of a 73m tall minaret, main prayer hall with the 18-pointed star roof and numerous smaller prayer halls. Next, we shall visit the famous Petronas Towers. Connected at the 42nd floor with a sky bridge, the twin towers were the tallest structure in the world till 2004. We shall also visit Tugu Negara, the National monument built to commemorate the lives of those soldiers who lost their life while fighting the Japanese invasion of World War II. The tour also includes visit to other important buildings like the King's palace and various administrative building such as Independence square and parliament house.

Overnight Stay at the hotel in Kuala Lumpur.

SEGV'S RECOMMENDATION - Night markets are a prominent cultural feature of Malaysia and a great place to explore the local lifestyle. To make space for the makeshift night markets, a section of the residential neighbourhoods are closed down for traffic and the streets are occupied by hawkers selling everything from fresh fruits to clothes and accessories. Jalan Alor is one such night market famous for its delicious and low-priced street food. The market is famous for tasty coconut ice-cream and mouth-watering sea food and is a haven for food lovers.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Arrive at Kuala Lumpur International Airport and check-in at the hotel
- See all the important landmarks of Kuala Lumpur during evening sight seeing tour
- Visit the most famous Kuala Lumpur night market - Jalan Alor - to enjoy local food [RECOMMENDED]

DAY 02: Visit To Genting Highlands And Batu Caves

After breakfast at the hotel, we will proceed to Genting Highlands and en-route visit Batu Caves.

Batu Caves are a set of gigantic natural limestone caves which formed around 400 million years ago. Today the caves have become an important Hindu pilgrimage site dedicated to Lord Murugan (another name for Lord Karthikey, brother of Lord Ganesha and son of Lord Shiva and Goddess Parvati). The golden statue of Lord Murugam outside the caves stands at 42.7m and is the tallest idol dedicated to Lord Murugam.
